Clean Sea Wando
Soft seaweed

Seaweed is so beneficial to health that it is called 'the treasure from the sea'. It is especially good for pregnant women, children in the growing season, and the elderly. It is also famous as black food for its healthy black food.

Seaweed is a good food for those who are taking care of themselves after giving birth. It plays a good role in blood circulation and is good for diet because it has low calories. Seaweed soup can be boiled or slightly blanched in hot water, washed in cold water, and enjoyed as a salad in your favorite seasoning.

stock kelp

Kelp contains enough nutrients to be called “sea vegetables”. It contains alginic acid, which interferes with the absorption of fat in the body, is effective in dieting, and helps to discharge wastes and plays an effective role in improving intestinal health and skin health.

When you cook broth, you can make it easy to taste by adding a deep flavor if you use it by making stock. After brewing for broth, the remaining kelp can be rinsed in cold water and easily enjoyed with ssam vegetables or seasoned.
